7. Title and Journaling
   - THIS IS VERY IMPORTANT!
   - Make a title for your page. You can do this on a separate piece of paper and then adhere it to your page if you're worried about making a mistake.
   - Record the important information about each event. Who, what, where, when, and why.

8. Add Embellishments (optional)
   - Choose die cuts, stickers, clip art, or punch art that match your theme.
   - Use accents suggested from within the photo.

REMEMBER!

Just get started and have fun!
Keep it simple
Keep the focus on your photos
Every page doesn't have to be a masterpiece

Construction

The first step in putting together a terrific scrapbook page is probably the toughest...

1. Organizing Your Photos
   - Gather all your photos in one spot.
   - With a photo safe pen, date and write subject on the back if information is available.
   - Sort the photos in chronological order. Then you can sort by person, event, or subject. Acid-free photo boxes are the perfect place to store photos.
   - Remember to date and organize your photos as you have them developed.
   - Save all your negatives in a photo-safe place too!

Now for the fun part...!

2. Select Your Photos
   - Select 3 – 10 photos that share a common theme.
   - EDIT! EDIT! EDIT! It's pretty hard to scrapbook every photo you take. Select your best and favorite photos. Keep the rest in photo-safe boxes or albums.

3. Crop Your Photos
   - Trim your photos to focus on the main subject.
   - Cut out unwanted or unnecessary areas.
   - Cut into shape or silhouette to add interest.
   - DON'T OVERCROP!
   - Never crop Polaroid photos because chemicals will leak out. Make a frame to go around photo or make a photocopy. Do not crop heritage or studio photos. Make color copies.

4. Study Your Photos
   - Pull colors from your photos to use as background and accent colors.

5. Mat Your Photos (optional)
   - Use paper to add a colored edge or border around your main photos. A border will draw the eye to your focal point.
   - You can layer mats or add a decorative edge with fancy scissors.

6. Lay Out and Adhere Photos to Page
   - Arrange your photos in a pleasing manner. Make sure your page looks "balanced."
   - Remember to leave space for your title and journaling.

BEGINNING SCRAPBOOKING

"Scrapbooks keep us connected to what is important in life…family, friends and the experiences we share with them."

Simple Art of Scrapbooking

Safety
Supplies
Construction

Safety

Some papers, glues, pens, and plastics damage photos. They make them turn yellow and become brittle and old looking. They can also cause your photos to stick to pages, so you can never remove them. You want to use "safe" products.

- Use acid-free, lignin-free materials
- Use pens that are labeled:
  permanent and light-fast
  archival quality, acid-free waterproof
- Look for plastic sleeves and page protectors that are labeled PVC- free.
- Avoid:
  -storing albums and photos in humid areas like a basement and areas with extreme temperatures
  -magnetic albums
  -using regular ink, rubber cement, scotch tape, white school glue, and paperclips in your scrapbook
  -newspaper and construction paper – de-acidify or make copies
  -any plastics that have a noticeable "plastic" smell

Supplies

Albums

You can choose from a variety of styles and sizes. The most widely used are 3-ring binder, post bound, and spiral bound in 8 ½ x 11" or 12 x 12" size. Always check 12 x 12" papers because all companies do not make them a standard size. Some trimming may be necessary to make them fit in your album. When buying a 3-ring binder, a "D" shaped ring will allow the pages to lie flat.

Paper

Always choose paper that is acid-free! Cardstock or patterned paper can be used for mounting or matting photos, adding background interest, or for titles and journaling. Comes in a variety of colors, weights and patterns. Cardstock will go through most computer printers.

Page Protectors
These keep pages safe from fingerprints and dirt, and protect photos from rubbing against each other.

Adhesives
Photo corners and photo mounting squares or tape work great for mounting photos on a page. Glue pens and glue sticks are best for sticking paper to paper. Make sure your adhesive is labeled acid-free!

Scissors
A good, sharp pair of straight scissors is a necessity along with a ruler and a grease pencil to mark photos. A paper trimmer will allow you to easily cut perfectly straight edges on paper and photos.

Pen for Journaling
Buy a pen that is acid-free, permanent and waterproof for adding names and dates to your pages.

Pencil and White Art Eraser

Accessories

Here's a list of just a few of the products available to make scrapbooking easier and more fun!

Decorative scissors – cut dozens of fancy edges. Be sure to re-align your scissors edge exactly into your prior cut each time to ensure a "clean cut."
Paper punches and corner rounders – carve the corners of the photos or mats into different shapes.
Templates – create great shapes from photos and papers. Aid in lettering, journaling, and borders.
Fancy rulers – come with decorative edges for tracing fancy border designs on paper. Combine these with stickers and punches for borders.
Crimpers — "pleat" paper into accordion-like pattern.
Markers – come in a variety of colors and tips for creative lettering and doodling.
Colored pencils – can be used like markers for special effects.
Rubber stamps – can dress up a page.
Specialty pens – for testing pH levels of your papers, pens to reduce "red eye" in your photos, pens to mark your photos and grease pencils to trace around your photos.
Idea books and magazines – to inspire and spark your creativity.
Computer – to help in creating titles and for journaling. Software is available with clip art and page layouts.

Notes

Percy lived in Los Angeles on Dalton St. (between Florence and Manchester) before about 1933. His family moved to Santa Monica near Ocean Park and Lincoln from about 1933 to 1935. While in Santa Monica he worked for the bus line. They then moved to a number of locations in Bell, California: first on Fishburn St, then to Live Oak St. At this time he worked for the L.A. Railroad. He bought a new '34 Ford just before moving from Santa Monica.

While in Santa Monica, his wife's father Pulsifer came to stay; he died at this site. While living on Dalton St. in L.A. his father Thomas Bosanko came to stay and also died.

Percy Jr. (Jack) also heard the oral family history about the French derivation of the Bosanko family name from his father, but does not remember being told which generation had moved to Cornwall.

Notes

Percy lived in Los Angeles on Dalton St. (between Florence and Manchester) before about 1933. His family moved to Santa Monica near Ocean Park and Lincoln from about 1933 to 1935. While in Santa Monica he worked for the bus line. They then moved to a number of locations in Bell, California: first on Fishburn St, then to Live Oak St. At this time he worked for the L.A. Railroad. He bought a new '34 Ford just before moving from Santa Monica.

While in Santa Monica, his wife's father Pulsifer came to stay; he died at this site. While living on Dalton St. in L.A. his father Thomas Bosanko came to stay and also died.

Percy Jr. (Jack) also heard the oral family history about the French derivation of the Bosanko family name from his father, but does not remember being told which generation had moved to Cornwall.

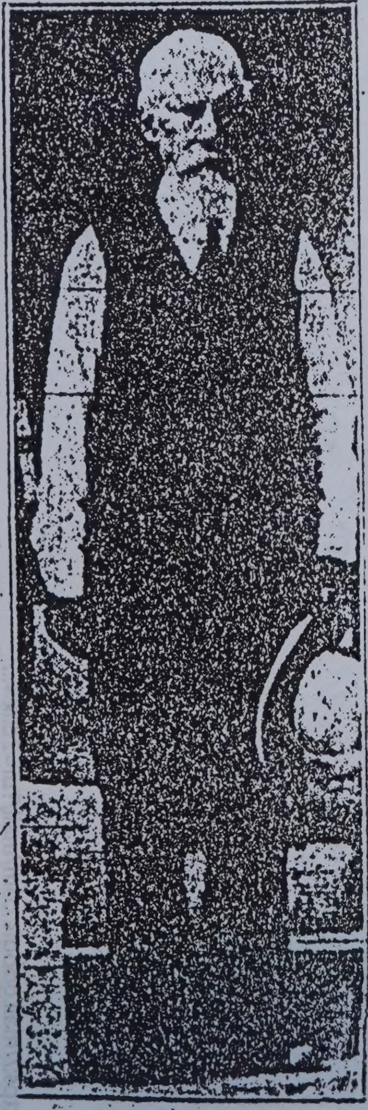
Charles Hertel Issued First Teaching Certificate to Alfred Bosanko's Wife

Dreaming of the prowess that once was his, and seeing in his mind's eye the ghosts of once active coal mines that came into existence through his ability as a human "mole," a Belleville man sits in his home and dreams of the achievements of by-gone years. And talks of them, too, for he is proud of his record and of the part he played in the development of the coal mining industry of the St. Clair County area.



ALFRED BOSANKO

His memories are almost all that are left to him out of his active life for all of the old-time operators for whom he worked have long since passed on to their rewards. Most of the mines he sunk and those which he reclaimed, have been worked out to their last veins. There may be a few left--but not enough to count, when compared to their original number.

Alfred Bosanko, 82 years old, last March 2, is one of the last of a race of pioneer coal men who instituted modern methods in mining. He always was successful in sinking shafts—his record, a mine near Odin that was 700 feet deep --but his greatest reputation came in salvaging properties that others had declared were hopelessly lost.

Performs Feat

There was the mine at Lebanon that had been put down in sand and all efforts to keep the trickly stuff back had failed. No one could control it said the man who had sunk the shaft and the owner sadly was preparing to let the earth reclaim its own when Mr. Bosanko asked to be given a chance to try his skill. Without boasting, it may be said that the mine was timbered; that it was operated successfully; that it later was sold to the Consolidated Coal Company, and that the success of Mr. Bosanko was recognized by the Consolidated with an agreement of employment that lasted for more than eight years.

The aged veteran of the mines is not quite so active now, although his retirement is a matter of only nine years. He has to his credit an extended trip to California when he was 79 years old—a trip which he enjoyed as much as did his grandchildren. He still takes an active mental interest in public affairs, particularly political affairs, and has decided views on many matters.

America First

Himself an emigrant from England about 1870, he feels that economic conditions have changed materially in the last three-score years and that restrictive immigration laws are very necessary in the life of the United States today. It is emphatically a case of America first with him, backed by a firm conviction that there is plenty of labor in this country now and that the first jobs should go to the American working man, before allowing others to come in and make a division of work necessary.

Having been a Republican since Grant's second term, as he expresses it, he believes that a protective tariff is necessary, but at the same time admits that he cannot understand just how it affects prosperity.

And as for prohibition, the principle of it is all wrong. For Mr. Bosanko believes in personal liberty:

"If a man wants a little drink he should have the privilege of taking it, and if another man doesn't want a drink, no one should force him to swallow it."

That is a logic of years of understanding and of observation of many of the foibles of the world.

Hoover Party's Nominee

Concerning this year's presidential possibilities, Mr. Bosanko expresses no views on the Democratic side for he has been a Republican of 60 years' duration, 20 of which he served as a member of the St. Clair County Central Committee, as a precinct committeeman from Belleville. In his judgment President Hoover will be renominated by his party.

Mr. Bosanko developed into his life's work naturally, for he was born in County Cornwall, England, and as a boy worked in the tin and copper mines of that region, although there mining principles were different than they are in the coal mines here. Those mines did not have shafts but tunnels that gradually wound deeper into the ground and cable cars were used to haul the ore to the surface.

Some of the mines were as much as 800 yards deep and the inclined railway made the tunnels very dangerous, but they all were taken as a matter of course in connection with the daily run of work.

St. Patrick's Day

But after a few years, Mr. Bosanko and several companions decided they had had enough, and since there were no restrictive immigration laws, agreed to go to America. Mr. Bosanko had an aunt, Mrs. Elizabeth Yates, living in Dover, New Jersey, so that was their first stopping point. His companions soon went their respective ways, but he remained at his aunt's home for some time and then went to Pennsylvania, getting work in the mines, and learning there for the first time the difference in mining between the new and the old countries.

From Pennsylvania he went on to Indiana, again working in the mines, then on to Illinois, locating at Edwardsville and later coming to Belleville. He doesn't remember just what time it was, but he remembers that it was early in 1873 for big preparations were being made for the annual St. Patrick's Day celebration here.

That was in the days of the old Cairo Short Line and St. Patrick's Day was the occasion of a district-wide celebration each year. Belleville people always took part and made up a special party to go to the metropolis by train. And he remembers also the parade of 1873. It was the first he ever had seen and it made a lasting impression on his mind.

Wife Was School Teacher

Sam Swancutt was proprietor of a boarding house and saloon in West Belleville then, and there Mr. Bosanko made his home. After a year he moved to Freeburg where he met the lady who became Mrs. Bosanko. She was Miss Margaret Jane Heard, a native of Sparta, who was teaching school in Belleville, and who had had the honor of receiving the first teacher's certificate issued by Charles Hertel when he became county superintendent of schools for the first time.

They were married January 24, 1874, and lived in Sparta until 1881 when they moved to Belleville, which since has been the home of the Bosanko family. Their residence was established at the corner of Third and C streets, but since the death of Mrs. Bosanko on May 5, 1923, Mr. Bosanko has been making his home with his youngest daughter, Mrs. R. M. Hathaway at 319 North Eighth street.

Ten children were born to the union of Mr. and Mrs. Bosanko, seven of whom are living. Two sons, Alfred and John, died in infancy, and a daughter, Lulu, at the age of three years. The surviving children are:

Thomas W. Bosanko, of Sacramento, Calif.; Jane, wife of William Van Hoose, of Edgemont; Israel W. Bosanko, living in the old home; Eugene A. Bosanko, of St. Louis; Henry Bosanko, living with his brother, Israel; Alonzo C. Bosanko, staff sergeant of the Second Engineers stationed at Fort Logan, Denver, Colo.; and Ruth, wife of R. M. Hathaway.

Five Great Grandchildren

Mr. Bosanko, too, is happy over his descendants, for his children are the parents of his 19 grandchildren and his grandchildren of five great-grandchildren. The former follow:

Children of Mr. and Mrs. William Van Hoose: Neal Van Hoose, of Edgemont; Thomas Van Hoose, of Detroit, Mich.; Rev. Alfred Van Hoose, of Cambria, Ill.; George Van Hoose, of Detroit; Margaret, wife of Alva Macke, of Edgemont; and William, Jr., Henry, Ruth Inez and Alonzo, all living at home.

Children of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Bosanko: Irene, wife of Almer Herman, of St. Louis, and Eugene, Jr., Clarence, Dorothy and Lena Marie, all living at home.

Children of Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Bosanko: John Alfred, Thomas Calvin and Daniel Campbell Bosanko, all living at home.

Children of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hathaway: Grace Inez Smith, a daughter of Mrs. Hathaway's first marriage to John W. Smith, who passed away in [illegible], and Bobby Hathaway, Jr., both living at home with their parents.

The five great-grandchildren are: Evon and Jeannine Van Hoose, children of Mr. and Mrs. Neal Van Hoose, of Edgemont; and Alfred Eugene, James and Mary Louise Herman, children of Mr. and Mrs. Almer Herman, of St. Louis.

Bosanko Named to Saddleback Dean Position

Robet G. Bosanko, well-known local educator, has been named Associate Dean of Admissions and Records at Saddleback College.

Bosanko, currently of El Toro High School, was named to the post by the college's Board of Trustees September 23. He will assume his duties at Saddleback on Dec. 1.

The immediate concern facing Bosanko are improving relations with local high schools and establishing a registration procedure as "trouble-free and flexible as possible," said Saddleback Supt. Dr. Robert A. Lombardi. Bosanko will report to the college's Dean of Students, Jack Swartzbaugh.

The 48-year old administrator was named principal of Mission Viejo High School when it was in the Tustin Union High School District in 1970. He has been principal at El Toro High in the Saddleback Valley Unified School District since March, 1973. Bonsanko is married, and the couple has two children. The family resides in San Juan Capistrano.

Notes

From Bosanko oral family history:
-Immigrated to the US from Cornwall, possibly about 1880. Later returned to marry Annie Osborne; returned to South Dakota.
-May have traveled to France or other places in Europe to study mining engineering (ref: copied letter from Bess Bosanko).
-May have worked on the Homestake Mine in South Dakota.
-May have died in South Dakota in 1915

Birth certificate obtained from SCH: 5c 266 June 15, 1859, Pool, Redruth district. Record agrees with 1861 and 1871 Census, but not South Dakota birth certs. Father and mother are listed, father's occupation was a copper miner.

Unable to locate marriage certificate for James and Annie Osborne from 1885-1893 in SCH PRO records. First son was born in 1893 in South Dakota, according to birth certificates.

Listed in 1861 and 1871 Census returns in Pool with Thomas and Mary Ann; was not listed at same address in 1881.

Death recorded as having occurred in Spearfish, south Dakota on notes received from Uncle Bob (Robert Gordon Bosanko).

From Bosanko family oral history:
Immigrated to South Dakota from England with James Bosanko.

Birthplace may well be Canon's Town (Cornwall), not Comonstown. This mistake was made with Selina Vincent also.

Maiden name taken from birth certificates of sons from South Dakota.

No record of marriage to James Bosanko in SCH PRO from 1885-1893. First son was born in S. Dakota in 1893.

Notes

From Bess Bosanko (letter addressed to Robert Gordon Bosanko, 2-20-82):
1) Archibald was on the same battle front as Sir McKinsey King in WWI.
2) The story of the Bosanko's as she remembers- "Art's Father and your Grandfather (James Bosanko and Thomas A. or Charles Bosanko) were sent from the Pyranese Mts. on the French side for their English Education. There Archie's Father met his mother also attending College. The boys returned to their country and his mother became a teacher in Cornwall, England. His Father went to India and I can't remember where else but he had studied mining engineering and that was what he was doing. Then he decided to come to America and found a pay dirt in the Black Hills and staked out a mining claim. When the papers got to him the name was spelled Bosanko instead of Bosanque so he decided to keep that name. He then went back to England and married Archie's Mom. He never returned to his home or England again. Archie's Mom and he went back to England on a couple trips when he was very little but she never took Ellis or Lottie as well as I remember the story."

Birth certificate obtained for Archibald Bosanko.
Note that part of the above story is probably inaccurate, since James and Thomas Bosanko were born in Cornwall, England (according to Archibald's and other birth certificates). See Thomas Bosanko for more info regarding that generation.

Hi All,

Leroy - Welcome! Hopefully the more the merrier! I have added you to my mailing list so any 'bulk' info you will get along with everyone else. Please feel free to add any info you may have of interest. I have also heard that BOSANKO is a polish name, so we may end up a league of nations!!!

Does he know where in Cornwall he went? When was he born?All,I have seen a photo of a Mabel Bosanko who came to Aussie years ago - probably in the 1930-40s. Family story says that she was from the USA and may have married a Mr GALE.How accurate that info is I have no idea, but she apparently was a cousin ?? how many/if any times removed. Does anyone know of a BOSANKO marrying a GALE?? - that really is a long shot!!

If anyone would like a gedcom of my line so far, let me know and I shall be happy to send it to you!

Lyle
Do you have any substantiation to your theory that Thomas [your ref No 655] married Ann ______?

At the moment I feel a bit like my Fox Terrier on a trail! I would like to try to clarify something if I can.
I have been looking through a collection of lines and if I can verify my suspicions/assumptions it would be great . So thought that I would throw it open.

Here is the plot - Samuel BOSANKO m Florence GUNDRY in Cornwall 6 Sept 1762 they had the following children:
Samuel [b 3 April 1736]

Now to Thomas! My ref = 469; Linda ref 545; Fayth ref 66; Lyle ref 655

I have been going through info from Linda, Fayth and Lyle today and also from some old notes and letters. Linda has a Thomas [RIN 545] m Miriam VIALL who has a grandson Henry Marks BOSANKO. I have been in touch with a lady, Judy B, in Queensland Aust who's husband is descended from Henry Marks BOSANKO - all dates matching, so it looks like there is a link there. At the same time I believe, but have not as yet heard back from Judy, that she has linked Thomas as Thomas and Mary's son.

On the other Hand Lyle has Thomas [Lyle's ref 655] is m to Ann someone therefore a different lineage.

Can anyone throw any further light on the subject?

Has anyone any proof of who Thomas is and who his parents are? Any Wills, birth certs, marriage certs etc etc etc? .

Bye for now - Kay

Etta May (Bosanko) Queen April 1, 1917 - July 30, 2011 Etta May was born April 1, 1917 to James Ellis Bosanko and Sadie (Bowman) Bosanko. She passed away on July 30, 2011. Etta May Queen was married to Thomas D. Queen in 1941. She worked for the Bakersfield City School District in the kitchen, first as a cook and later as the Compton Jr. High cafeteria manager. Etta May loved to travel and would go with her husband and grandchildren fishing near Bishop or camping at the Colorado River. She loved babies and children so each addition of a new great grandchild brought her newfound joy. This love created a bond to each of these children that was stronger than most. She was a caring mother, a wonderful grandmother and great grandmother. She leaves behind her son Dave Queen and his wife Catherine Miller who spent a great deal of time not only as a loving daughter-in-law but also as a caregiver. She also leaves her grandchildren Cherie (Queen) Riehle, John Queen, and Christopher Queen and all of their children that will miss her dearly. She loved the Bible and had her great grandchildren read it to her when they were able. Two of her favorite verses were Matthew 5:3 and Matthew 6:9 (The Beatitude and the Lord's Prayer). Etta May was preceded in death by her husband Thomas, her eldest son Bill and her parents, James Ellis Bosanko and Sadie Bosanko, who are celebrating their reunion with her now. Just talked to Evon SHERRAT (BOSANKO)

lmshattuck@aol.com <lmshattuck@aol.com> Wed, May 5, 2010 at 6:17 PM
To: fh.peregrin@gmail.com

I just talked to the sweetest older lady. She was very ill (in a nursing home) and couldn't talk very well.
Her son is going to call me. She urged me NOT to contact her ex-husband and be prepared that he could yell at me.

Anyway, I hope to get more information next week.

SO, she is the mother of the THREE (you were right!) babies.

Here is the brief information on them....

Robert Kevin Bosanko (died from a congential heart defect) Died 6 July 1962
Richard (twin to Robyn) he is MALE. Died 17 Sep 1963
Robyn (twin to Richard) she is FEMALE. Died 17 Sept 1963

I hope to talk to the oldest son James Ellis Bosanko the THIRD next week.
He seems like a nice kid and calls his mother every night.....gee, that's sweet....

Sorry I was wrong about the babies. At least we have better info now. and you were right! :) - Linda

After eighty-three years of earthly life, our dear aunt, mother, grandmother and friend, Evon Sherratt Bosanko, passed away on July 21, 2010. She was born to Ethel King and Robert Burns Sherratt on June 16, 1927 in Cedar City, Utah.

Evon enjoyed a happy childhood surrounded by the love and adoration of her three older siblings as well as her nieces, nephews and cousins. She maintained a particularly close relationship with her mother and father who taught her a love for her Savior, Jesus Christ. This love, along with her love for family and friends, helped Evon endure many of life's challenges.

Evon felt a great loyalty to Cedar City and took pride in knowing it was first settled by her grandparents Christina Bulloch Sherratt and John Sherratt. She obtained all of her education in this community, including secretarial training at Branch Agricultural College (now SUU).

She relished the years she worked for the U.S. Recruiting Service and Southwestern Distributing Company. Her favorite position was Deputy County Assessor.

Evon married James Bosanko, II in 1958. The young couple resided in California and Nevada. Evon adored children and was thrilled when her first child, James (Jim) Bosanko was born. She suffered a devastating loss when son Robert Kevin Bosanko and twins Richard Bosanko and Robyn Bosanko , died shortly after birth. She was later blessed with a son, Tom Bosanko, and daughter, Kelli Bosanko.

When Evon and James Bosanko, II divorced, Evon returned to Cedar City. She happily obtained employment as a teacher's aide and loved her associations with children and teachers. She was saddened when health problems required her to leave this position.

For most of her life, Evon suffered with rheumatoid arthritis. Although the disease affected her mobility, she cherished the relationships she fostered with many in the medical community. She was also blessed with compassionate friends and ward members who

James Ellis Bosanko III

Affectionately know as "Jimmy" for many years and later as "Jim" transitioned unexpectedly at 1:15am on Monday August 2, 2010 in Saint George, UT. Jim was born December 30, 1959 in Sacramento California, to Evon Sherratt Bosanko and James Ellis Bosanko II.

Jim grew up in Boulder City and later moved to Henderson Nevada. Jim traveled to most of the 50 states, and Canada, as an over the road truck driver, for American Van Lines, Continental Express Inc., and Southern Refrigerated Transportation. Settling down in Las Vegas, Jim worked as Coach Operator for Veolia Transportation and later as a Marketing Representative for Company Funds.

Hogan's Heroes, Police Academy, Walker Texas Ranger and especially M.A.S.H. were a few of his favorite television programs. One of his favorite meals was a hotdog with onions, relish , and plenty of ketchup with a side of macaroni and cheese with ketchup and yes, his beverage of choice Coke a Cola. The aroma of "freshly" laid asphalt made his day.

Jim is survived by his sons Vencient "Mike" Adams-Ambre, Anthony Walker, and daughter Courtenay Adams-Ambre, daughter-in-law Amber Walker and granddaughter Jaylin Walker. Brother Tom Bosanko, Sister Kelli Bosanko Khoury, step-brother Derrick Lovelace, father James Bosanko, II and wife Debbie. Cousins Lee Gurr Sherratt, Ann Sherratt Frehner, Bob Hahne, Louis Hahne, Lory Misel, John Misel and Jean Misel Lamoreaux and Special friends Harald Reindorf and Scherrie Adams-Ambre.

Notes

From Bess Bosanko (letter addressed to Robert Gordon Bosanko, 2-20-82):
1) Archibald was on the same battle front as Sir McKinsey King in WWI.
2) The story of the Bosanko's as she remembers- "Art's Father and your Grandfather (James Bosanko and Thomas A. or Charles Bosanko) were sent from the Pyranese Mts. on the French side for their English Education. There Archie's Father met his mother also attending College. The boys returned to their country and his mother became a teacher in Cornwall, England. His Father went to India and I can't remember where else but he had studied mining engineering and that was what he was doing. Then he decided to come to America and found a pay dirt in the Black Hills and staked out a mining claim. When the papers got to him the name was spelled Bosanko instead of Bosanque so he decided to keep that name. He then went back to England and married Archie's Mom. He never returned to his home or England again. Archie's Mom and he went back to England on a couple trips when he was very little but she never took Ellis or Lottie as well as I remember the story."

Birth certificate obtained for Archibald Bosanko.
Note that part of the above story is probably inaccurate, since James and Thomas Bosanko were born in Cornwall, England (according to Archibald's and other birth certificates). See Thomas Bosanko for more info regarding that generation.
